Take a look at what we can do for you...

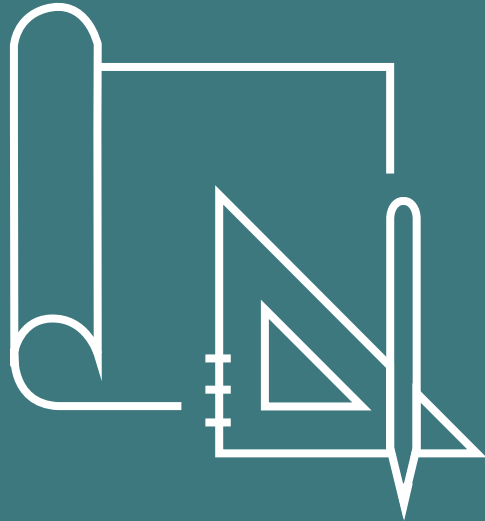

Architectural Expertise

Arranging office spaces is our job, which we approach with passion and commitment. Professional designs and lifelike visualizations that we create at MARO convince the most demanding clients. Do you want to change something? Are you wondering how to do that? Not sure what the final effect will be? Contact us and you will receive complex, professional support. We can make for you: :

- an inventory of currently used equipment;
- a rearrangement of an office space or a project of a completely new space;
- a professional visualization of the project.

Experienced and skilled MARO specialists are at your service.

YOUR BENEFITS:

- You will have present condition of your furniture checked and analyzed. You will find out what the quantity and consumption of your furniture is. You will receive the base for the decision to change or rearrange your office.
- It will be the first step towards space optimization and implementation of changes to adapt to the current needs of your company.

Office space and furniture inventory

If you want to find out what the quality, condition and quantity of your furniture is, and get to know essential data to make a decision to change or rearrange your office, this step is a must. Thanks to this, you will learn how to boost the comfort of work and what can be improved in your office.

The service includes:

- measurement of the area of rooms;
- inventory and arrangement of the currently used furniture;
- light points distribution check;
- electrical sockets location check;
- inventory report with tables, photos and descriptions together with a listed set of furniture and seats.

YOUR BENEFITS:

- a starting point to prepare the cost estimation of the investment;
- help in decision making process regarding the scope of the project;
- a starting point to see what your rearranged office could look like, the possibility to take advantage of Your Office of Tomorrow tool, which facilitates the identification of teams' needs so that the space best suits their requirements.

Office space management plan

The best space arrangements are those in which the users themselves influence key decisions. Even the most spectacular office arrangements may turn out inadequate if we do not take into account the users' opinions and needs. Therefore, it is crucial that any changes in the office are well thought-out and consulted with employees. Thanks to our concept Your Office of Tomorrow, it is possible to identify your team's needs and adjust the entire project to the organizational culture of your company.

The service includes:

- a space plan - we will provide 2D flat projections and layout proposals with MARO furniture and complementary products with descriptions;
- depending on the size of the project - illustrative visualizations of 2-4 key places in the company's office space;
- catalog cards.

YOUR BENEFITS:

If you want to see what your rearranged office could look like and what is worth changing to enhance the efficiency of your office space and increase the comfort of work, please contact us. Thanks to the rearrangement, not only will your office be adjusted to the emerging needs of your organization, but you also demonstrate care about employer branding.

Rearrangement of your office space

Company growth or organizational changes should go in line with office reorganization. It is impossible to regularly refurbish a space that is supposed to earn money. A way for a minimally invasive, yet eye-catching change is rearrangement of an office using the current resources and complementing them with new pieces. This way, it is possible to quickly adjust the office to the evolving needs of your company and employees without paralyzing the activity of your organization.

In addition to all the elements that are included in the Office Space and Furniture Inventory, you will receive:

- consultation and discussion of the purpose of the change;
- a space plan - flat projections and proposals of furniture changes with a description;
- a project of a new, rearranged office space;
- the possibility to take advantage of Your Office of Tomorrow tool, which facilitates the identification of teams' needs so that the space best suits their requirements.

Photorealistic visualization of the new office space

There are so many items of equipment that it is sometimes impossible to imagine what a new space will look like, and yet every detail in the workplace matters. Not only does 3D visualization allow to present the layout of the furniture, but also color and fabric combinations. Photorealistic shots are a perfect way to present your project to those in charge. It is also a great tool that allows employees to visualize upcoming changes.

In addition to the Space Rearrangement Plan or Office Space Management plan, you will receive:

- photorealistic photos visualizing the space in accordance with our prior arrangements;
- the possibility to take a virtual walk around the new space.
